

The AMBERIF International Amber and Jewellery Fair, which took place on 12-14.03.2025 at AMBEREXPO in Gdańsk, gathered leading representatives of the jewellery and amber industry from around the world. The event was accompanied by a spectacular fashion and jewellery show and a novelty of this edition – Education and Career Day.

Over 200 exhibitors took part in this year's edition, who presented a wide range of amber jewellery, as well as products made of gold, silver, gemstones, pearls and diamonds. Exhibitors also offered specialist machinery and jewellery semi-finished products.

Art Zone and prestigious exhibitions

The Art Zone enjoyed great interest, where visitors could admire exhibitions by artists such as Andrzej Boss, Iwona Tamborska, Sława Tchórzewska, Marcin Nowak and Michał Ostrogórski.

AMBERIF Selection competition winners

Traditionally, during the fair, the winners of the prestigious AMBERIF Selection competition were selected, which has been promoting outstanding jewellery designs using Baltic amber since 1995. The winners in this year's edition are:

Honorable Mentions:

- CHILLI Ireneusz Glaza, designer: Ireneusz Glaza for an amber ring,
- A2 Jewellery, designer: Ryszard Węsierski for the "LAGOON" ring,
- Weroarte Weronika Majewska, designer: Weronika Majewska for the "Waterfalls" pendant.

Main prizes:

- Gdansk International Fair Co. Award: Andrzej Boss for the "BANKSY" pendant,
- Ministry of Development and Technology Award: A2 Jewellery, designer: Ryszard Węsierski for the "DAYDREAM" ring.

AMBERIF Design Award – record-breaking edition

The AMBERIF fair was also the area for the international AMBERIF Design Award competition, the aim of which is to promote amber as an artistic material. This year's edition gathered a record number of 250 participants from 34 countries, who submitted a total of 365 works.

Competition results:

- Grand Prix – award of the Mayor of the City of Gdansk: Fumiko Gotô (Switzerland) for the brooch "Of Shadows",
- Silver Award – award of the Gdansk International Fair Co.: Karol Zagórowski (Poland) for the ring "Good Joke",

- Amber Award – award of the International Amber Association: Gabriela Kozłowska (Poland) for the ear jewellery “My Deepest Voice”,
- Honorable mentions of the Yes Gallery: Julita Dąbrowska & Duchna Łosiak (Poland) for the earring “Vulcano” and Emilia Kohut (Poland) for the object “I LUV Y”.

AMBERIF Vibes – a spectacular combination of amber, fashion and music

The culmination of the first day of the Fair was the exceptional fashion and jewellery show AMBERIF Vibes, which this year took place in the industrial setting of the B90 club. The exhibitors of the Fair presented their works in the fashion show directed by Maciej Majzner. The audience could admire individual shows by Daria Burkowska (Dorbur) in a duet with clothing designs by Monika Szymikowska, Dorota Cenecka with Natasha Pavluchenko, Joanna Kotowicz-Buczyńska and Michał Starost, as well as Jola Słoma and Mirek Trymbulak. The joint show included works by: From Nature With Love, Tadeusz Dobkowski’s Amber Gallery, Studio DF, ENZO, Danuta Kruczkowska, GEM Pracownia Bursztynu, AMETYST Studio, ArtSzok Tomasz Pisanko, SKROBOT Design, Image Silver and Kargul.TK. Among the models were, among others, Bogna Sworowska, Lidia Popiel, Robert Kupisz and Szymon Bieniuk.

Education and Career Day – a new addition to the program

For the first time in the history of the Fair, the Education and Career Day was held, aimed at pupils and students of art schools. This initiative aimed to present career opportunities in the jewellery industry and to enable young talents to establish contact with professionals.

Summary

AMBERIF 2025 has once again proven to be a key event in the world of jewellery and amber.
